

Child Abuse Network, Inc. Facebook Comment Policy

The Child Abuse Network, Inc. (CAN) Facebook page welcomes your comments and postings. Comments, photos, and video responses posted to the CAN Facebook page are subject to Facebook's usage, abuse, and comment policies at <https://www.facebook.com/#!/policy.php?ref=pf>. Your comments are public and available to anyone visiting the CAN Facebook page.

To protect your privacy and the privacy of others, do not include names, phone numbers, email addresses, social security number, case numbers, case details or any other sensitive personally identifiable information (PII) in your comments or responses.

CAN reserves the right to remove any materials that pose a privacy risk.

Additionally, CAN reserves the right to review all comments and remove any that contain profanity, personal attacks of any kind, spam, contain offensive terms that target specific ethnic or racial groups, promote commercial products, are geared toward the success or failure of a partisan political party, group, or candidate, incite hate, or are subject to a claim of infringement or deemed to be an infringement of intellectual property, or that is otherwise objectionable. Any opinions expressed by commentators on the CAN Facebook page, except as specifically noted, are solely those of the individual offering commentary, and do not reflect any CAN policy, endorsement, or action.

Use of a Facebook page is governed by the Facebook Privacy Policy at <https://www.facebook.com/#!/policy.php?ref=pf>. Only CAN employees acting in their official capacity are authorized representatives to administer CAN Facebook pages, as outlined in the section above. All postings and content are considered property of CAN, and CAN retains the authority to remove or limit its distribution.

Any references to commercial entities, products, services, or other nongovernmental organizations or individuals that remain on the CAN Facebook page are provided solely for the information of individuals visiting the CAN Facebook page. CAN does not endorse, support, or otherwise promote any private or commercial entity or the information, products, or services contained on those websites that may be reached through links on the CAN Facebook page.

The following guidelines are strictly enforced on the CAN Facebook page. Please note that materials in violation of these guidelines will be removed by CAN.

- DO NOT use the CAN Facebook Page to report suspected child abuse. Individuals should call the appropriate hotline:
 - Oklahoma hotline: (800) 522-3511
 - National hotline: (800) 422-4453
- DO NOT use the CAN Facebook Page to report other criminal activity. Individuals with information for law enforcement should contact their local law enforcement agency.
- DO NOT use the CAN Facebook Page to send questions or status inquiries about any specific case. Instead, individuals should contact CAN directly via contact information made available on our main website at www.childabusenetwork.org.
- DO NOT use the CAN Facebook Page to request CAN services or general questions. Instead, individuals should contact CAN directly via contact information made available on our main website at www.childabusenetwork.org.
- DO NOT use the CAN Facebook Page to submit any claim, demand, informal or formal complaint, or any other form of legal and/or administrative notice or process, or for the exhaustion of any legal and/or administrative remedy.

CAN reserves the right to remove any materials related to the restrictions outlined above.

CAN does not guarantee or warrant that any information posted by individuals on the CAN Facebook page is correct, and disclaims any liability for any loss or damage resulting from reliance on any such information. CAN may not be able to verify, does not warrant or guarantee, and assumes no liability for, anything posted on the CAN Facebook page by any other person.

Members of the media are directed to send questions to CAN through their normal channels.